A unique period property, The Old Police Station occupies the central portion of the old Helmsley Police Station. Built in 1934 the Station underwent an imaginative conversion in 2016 resulting in a spacious four-bedroom family home, with well-proportioned rooms, high ceilings and attractively finished throughout. Private off-street parking for a number of cars and a generous low maintenance rear garden.

In all the property provides almost 1,700 square feet of accommodation, with solid oak engineered floors, modern kitchen and bathroom fittings and a good range of generously proportioned room. The property is located on Ashdale Road which lies on the eastern edge of the town, only a short level walk to the historic market square.

In brief the house provides the following accommodation. Entrance vestibule, a large open plan dining kitchen with French doors opening into the rear facing sitting room and a generous rear hall with cloakroom and room utility with additional storage area. Upstairs are four bedrooms; three of which are very generous doubles and one with an en-suite shower room along with the main house bathroom. The property is double glazed throughout and has gas fired central heating.

LOCATION

Helmsley is a very attractive market town situated on the southern fringe of the North York Moors National Park. With a weekly market, an eclectic range of smart shops, hostelrys and restaurants and high-class delicatessens, the town is a highly regarded tourist destination. OUTSIDE

Standing well back from Ashdale Road with parking on the block paved driveway, the garden lies primarily to the rear and faces southeast with a sunny, sheltered position.

The rear garden has been landscaped to create an easy to care for but versatile space. Immediately to the rear is a paved patio area which gives way to a lawn and well stocked raised beds. To the far end is a newly fitted decked area; with maintenance free Ecodeck. The garden has built in lighting, a useful timber garden shed and to the side is a bin store area and a high hand gate provides access around to Ashdale Road.
