Set within the heart of the highly sought after Exe Valley village of Thorverton, 10 Broadlands enjoys a wonderful position with countryside on its doorstep yet excellent access to Exeter, just 15 minutes away. Thorverton is renowned for its strong community spirit and range of amenities including a village store, farm shop, two public houses, primary school, doctors surgery, sports clubs and regular bus services, making it one of the area's most desirable villages in which to live. The surrounding countryside offers beautiful walks and open views, while the A396 provides straightforward links into Exeter, Tiverton and beyond.

The property itself is a beautifully presented mid-terrace home that has been thoughtfully remodelled by the current owners to create a more open and sociable living space, perfectly suited to modern family life.

The heart of the home is the enlarged open plan kitchen and dining area, which flows seamlessly into the living space and enjoys plenty of natural light, with large doors opening directly onto the rear garden. The kitchen has been updated with contemporary fittings and appliances, creating a stylish yet practical space for everyday living and entertaining. A downstairs cloakroom adds further convenience.

Upstairs, there are three well proportioned bedrooms along with a modern family bathroom, all presented in excellent condition throughout, making the property very much ready to move straight into.

Outside, the house benefits from both front and rear gardens. The rear garden is level and south facing, enjoying sunshine throughout the day. It is mainly laid to lawn with a substantial, social paved patio providing a seating area, ideal for relaxing, dining outdoors or for children to play. To the front, there is a paved courtyard style garden along with useful storage area, adding further practicality. There's even a rear access on foot to save coming through the house to access the garden.

On street parking is readily available close by, and overall the property offers a fantastic opportunity to enjoy village living in a beautifully maintained home, with modern open plan accommodation, lovely gardens and a superb community setting.

GIRAFFE360

THORVERTON is a sought-after village excellently positioned for access to Crediton, Exeter, and Tiverton. The bucolic village centre is a pretty village green straddling a brook and surrounded by characterful properties. The local pub, The Thorverton Arms is widely regarded as one of the best Sunday lunch venues in the area. The pub has served the village since the 16th century and features as a welcome stopping place for those exploring the Exe Valley Way which passes through the village. For everyday essentials, the Exe Valley Farm Shop is a short drive from the village, it also has an excellent café and gift shop. There are also a doctor's surgery and an excellent C of E Primary school (OFSTED good), the village is in the Crediton, Queen Elizabeth's catchment area for secondary schooling. For those wanting to leave the car at home there are a number of bus services for access to Exeter and Tiverton.

DIRECTIONS : For sat-nav use EX5 5PT and the What3Words address is ///venturing.standard.middle but if you want the traditional directions, please read on.
