ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Entering into the property via an entrance hallway, off of which is the reception room with the high ceilings and large bay windows. The bathroom is spacious and in contemporary fashion. The kitchen itself also benefits from the substantial worktops and again offers modern facilities. There is a double bedroom to the rear. The whole apartment has plenty of natural light.

Alderney Street is a desirable location within the Pimlico Grid, offering walking distance to the amenities of Victoria to the East and a short walk across to the illustrious Pimlico Road in Belgravia offering the well-known antique and furniture shops and the well-loved farmers market at the weekend.
