6 The Ravens

Tucked away within a secluded development, this well-presented end of terrace bungalow enjoys an elevated position with far-reaching sea views across the bay. Offering light and well-balanced accommodation, the property would make an ideal holiday or invest opportunity. With the added benefit of outside space and parking, it provides a comfortable and low-maintenance coastal retreat.

Interior

The accommodation has a bright and open feel, centred around a lounge/dining area which connects through to the adjoining kitchen, creating a practical and sociable living space. The kitchen is fitted with a range of units with plumbing for washing machine.

There is a double bedroom, offering a comfortable and peaceful space, along with a bathroom serving the property. There's a smaller room off the living room that could be used as an occasional bedroom. From the living area, a generously sized UPVC conservatory provides additional reception space, ideal for relaxing or dining, and enjoys direct access out to the front terrace and rear garden.

Exterior

To the front, a private decked terrace makes the most of the elevated position, offering an excellent space to sit and enjoy the far-reaching sea views. To the rear, there is a lawned area providing a further outdoor space.

The property also benefits from parking for a vehicle.

Ventnor

A Victorian sea-side town that has fantastic views across the English channel. Both the town and the seafront has an array of local boutiques, cafes and high end restaurants, many specialising in local seafood. An abundance of outside recreational pursuits can be found including a golf course, rugby and cricket club. There are beautiful walks to the Ventnor Downs, along the coastal path and down to the ever popular Steephill Cove.
