SITUATION

Topsham offers an excellent range of facilities, including independent shops, quality restaurants, pubs, a primary school, outdoor swimming pool, tennis courts, bowling green and a sailing club. The town is set on the River Exe and was historically renowned worldwide for shipbuilding during the medieval era.

Communications are excellent, with the city centre of Exeter nearby and a railway station in Topsham. Exeter provides a wide range of shopping, entertainment and dining options, is home to Exeter Chiefs Rugby Club, and boasts a highly regarded university. London is just over two hours away by train, and Exeter Airport offers daily flights to London City Airport.

DESCRIPTION

Located in the heart of old Topsham on Higher Shapter Street, one of the popular roads leading off The Strand, The Kings Head is a stunning, unlisted period house. As the name suggests, it is believed to have once been a public house. Converted into a residence many years ago, the property retains a wealth of period features throughout and, having been extended and altered over time, offers a charming and characterful living environment.

Upon entering, it is immediately apparent that The Kings Head is a special property, with an abundance of original features and high-quality fittings. To the left of the hallway is a downstairs cloakroom, along with a useful utility room, while to the right is a splendid sitting room featuring exposed ceiling beams and a large wood burner set within an exposed brick hearth. Glazed French doors open into a delightful garden room/snug, which flows through to the dining room and provides access to the garden.

Located at the rear of the house, the kitchen/dining room forms a wonderful living space, with exposed beams and a recently replaced kitchen featuring Corian worktops and a range of integrated appliances. The dining area benefits from attractive wood panelling, and a feature wooden door leads back into the hallway, complete with a hatch believed to have been used for cider jugs. Ascending the stairs, just before reaching the landing, the principal bedroom is located on the left. This is a stunning room with a vaulted ceiling, exposed beams and an exposed brick fireplace. Multiple windows create a bright and airy feel, and a door leads to an en-suite. From the main landing are two further double bedrooms, one to the front with an exposed brick wall, and the other featuring a period fireplace. Stairs lead to the top floor, where there is an additional double bedroom with an en-suite and fitted shelving.

OUTSIDE

To the side, unusually for this part of Topsham, is a driveway providing parking for several vehicles and leading to a large garage with a metal up-and-over door. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with a patio area, and there is a good-sized garden room offering potential for use as a home office or additional accommodation, subject to the usual consents.
