THE PERFECT FAMILY HOME

Situated in the highly sought-after area of Blackburn, Dalglish Drive presents an exquisite detached family home that epitomises modern living. This property has been meticulously maintained and showcases immaculate presentation throughout, offering spacious rooms that cater perfectly to family life.

Significant improvements have been made to enhance the home's functionality and efficiency. The gutters and downpipes have been replaced with durable PVC, while a state-of-the-art digital fob alarm system ensures security. The property is equipped with solar panels, contributing to energy efficiency, and the boiler, which is just seven years old, has been fully serviced for peace of mind. The kitchen features digital electric underfloor heating, providing a warm and inviting atmosphere, while the gas central heating system is complemented by a Nest remote digital thermostat for convenient temperature control.

Lighting is a key feature of this home, with ninety percent of the house benefiting from dimmable options, allowing for a tailored ambiance. The garden lighting is also digital, complete with electric points and a full drainage system, making it ideal for outdoor entertaining. The three double bedrooms allow for a growing family to have their own space, whilst the two bathrooms offer conveniency in a busy household.

The fully landscaped south facing garden is truly the heart of this property, designed with care to maximise every inch of space, creating a serene outdoor retreat. Additionally, the driveway accommodates four vehicles, including a generous space suitable for a motorhome or caravan, ensuring ample parking for family and guests.
