SITUATION

Bridge Cottage enjoys a wonderfully atmospheric position on the edge of the popular South Hams village of Avonwick, set within the South Devon Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The village has a friendly and active community, with a well-regarded pub and restaurant, Victorian church, children's play park and Avon Vale Tennis Club, one of the world's oldest lawn tennis clubs.

The cottage sits beside the River Avon and the ancient Cobbly Walk, offering immediate access to woodland paths and the wider countryside, while Dartmoor and the region's renowned coastline lie within easy reach. The A38 is just a mile away, giving excellent links to Exeter, Plymouth and the M5. Totnes is five miles distance with extensive shops, services and a mainline station to London Paddington, and nearby South Brent provides further daily amenities including a primary school and doctor's surgery.

DESCRIPTION

A remarkably characterful Grade II listed former toll house, Bridge Cottage combines early nineteenth-century heritage with a captivating riverside setting and beautifully tended gardens that run the full length of the riverbank. The cottage offers atmospheric living over three floors, with thoughtful modern comforts enhancing its original charm.

Exposed timbers, slate and pine floor finishes, deep window sills and hand-crafted shutters create a warm period feel throughout, while contemporary kitchen and bathroom fittings, broadband connectivity and double-glazed secondary units ensure everyday ease.
