A recently refurbished six bedroom house over seven floors with lift access and air conditioning, finished to a high specification. The property has two private outside areas and is located in prime Mayfair.

The impressive entrance hall leads through to a spacious open-plan kitchen/dining room with Gaggenau appliances, bespoke cabinetry, a fireplace and its own private patio, providing fabulous entertaining space.

The stunning first floor reception room opens out onto a private terrace, and also leads into the library/study with beautiful cabinetry.

There are four bedrooms on the upper floors, three of which are en suite, and all include built in wardrobes and wonderful natural light. There is a further bathroom and an additional top floor bedroom/studio featuring exposed wooden beams.

The lower ground floor comprises a sumptuous media and games room complete with a bar and guest cloak room, and a further self-contained bedroom, bathroom and utility room.

Chesterfield Hill is renowned for its elegant period architecture and quiet, tree-lined charm. Moments from Berkeley Square and Green Park, it offers refined living surrounded by London's finest boutiques, restaurants, and private clubs a rare blend of heritage and luxury in one of the city's most prestigious locations.
