Nestled in the picturesque village of Aston Ingham, near Ross-On-Wye, this charming four bedroom family home offers a unique opportunity to own a piece of history. Originally established as the village school in 1682, this property has been lovingly converted into a private residence, with the transformation completed in 1986.

As you step inside, you will be greeted by a delightful blend of original features that hark back to its educational past, seamlessly combined with the modern comforts of contemporary living. The character of the building is evident throughout, with high ceilings, arch windows, spacious rooms, and an abundance of natural light that creates a warm and inviting atmosphere.

Fantastic views can be enjoyed over the countryside.
