Europa House's three bedroom apartment spans an impressive 1,646 square feet (153 square meters). The generously proportioned interiors are bathed in natural light through large windows with views over the Little Venice rooftops and the private gardens below. Through the kitchen is a generous terrace with outdoor seating, and there is also a terrace directly accessed from the living room. A charming working fireplace further elevates the living area. This apartment is fully air conditioned with private lift access.

Europa House is also within close proximity to the American School London (ASL), Regents Park, canal side walks and dining. The building has underground parking; rent includes all bills.
