This charming and well positioned three bedroom true bungalow sits within a generous plot and not only boasts open rural views to three sides, off road parking on a lengthy driveway, a true double garage and an outbuilding. It has also has generous and flexible living accommodation throughout. Importantly however, it also benefits from a previously passed full planning permission application, to extensively extend and remodel the entire property, if a buyer wished to do so, whilst retaining its permitted development rights.

The timber panelled door with opaque glass side panels opens into the spacious dining hallway that comfortably houses a six-seater dining table

To one side, an opening gives way to the kitchen with windows to side and rear as well as a timber door onto the rear driveway parking area. The kitchen itself has a good range of medium oak wall and base cabinets to include drawer banks, basket storage and a peninsula unit with glazed display above and strategically placed splash tiling co-ordinates with the tiled flooring.

The contrasting blue Formica worktops have an inset coloured single drainer sink unit with French style mixer tap set beneath the side window and a further picture window overlooks the rear garden. Cooking facilities are provided by the five-burner Rangemaster range style cooker which has a canopy extractor fan above. There is an integrated fridge and plumbing for both an automatic dishwasher and automatic washing machine.

From the dining room, a doorway leads through to the inner hallway which has a window to the side and an opaque glass panel which allows light to pour through to this area. At the far end, the well proportioned and elegantly presented dual aspect lounge has a picture window overlooking the rear garden and French windows open to the side patio. The focal point of the room is the Adam style fire-surround with marble inset and hearth and which houses a gas coal fire and a central pendant light gives added ambience.

The chicly presented and good sized master bedroom has a side window and a large bay window with a window seat beneath from which to enjoy the front garden and far reaching views beyond. A range of black high-gloss fronted wardrobes are fitted along one wall and provide clothes storage and there is additional space for drawer banks and night-stands.

Bedroom two, off the dining hall, is a good sized double room with a bay window to the front, a window to the side and a range of fitted wardrobes with over-bed cabinets.

Bedroom three also has a range of fitted wardrobes and over-bed cabinets.

Each is served by the contemporary style family bathroom which has an opaque window to the side. The grey slate-effect tiling to the walls and floor form the backdrop to the white suite which includes a step-in cubicle with rainfall and hand showers and a protective screen, a circular wash basin resting on a granite-topped table and a close coupled w.c. The room is illuminated by recessed down-lighting and warmed by a chrome ladder-style heated towel rail.

Enjoying far reaching views toward Winter Hill, the property is approached via a lengthy Tarmac driveway which cuts a pathway through the front lawn garden having mature shrubs and conifer beds plus specimen trees dotted throughout. The driveway provides ample parking for numerous cars, before continuing through a five barred gateway to the detached double garage with up and over door, power and light.

The rear garden is also laid mainly to lawn, has flower and shrub borders, an ornamental pond and west facing views over adjoining farmland. A brick built single out building currently provides storage for garden equipment and has a hard-standing area to the rear.

NB - The details regarding the full planning permission granted in 2018 for the extensive extension and remodelling of the property can be found on Chorley Borough Council planning portal with the reference number - 18/006825/FULHH.
