THE DETAIL___

AbbotFox presents a fantastic opportunity to rent this five-bedroom student property in the highly sought-after area of The Avenues, Norwich. Ideally suited to a group of five students looking to secure their accommodation for the next academic year, the property offers convenient access to the University of East Anglia (UEA), local amenities and Norwich city centre.

The property provides five bedrooms, making it an ideal choice for a group of friends looking to share a house while enjoying their own private space. The communal living areas offer a great setting for socialising and relaxing, while the location is particularly popular with students seeking a balance between university life and the amenities of the city.

Situated in the desirable NR4 area, The Avenues is a well-established student location, offering access to local shops, transport links and routes into Norwich city centre.
