SITUATION & AMENITIES

In a delightful position on the edge of the sought-after village of Bratton Fleming, situated in the foothills of the Exmoor National Park, lying within a predominantly agricultural landscape, primarily comprising pasture and arable land and interspersed with an abundance of woodland and pretty river valleys. Bratton Fleming itself offers a thriving local community, offering primary and pre-schooling, a village community store, together with a regular bus service to both Barnstaple and Lynton. Public schooling is available at the renowned West Buckland school, which lies about 5.7 miles to the South. The regional centre of Barnstaple lies about 8.5 miles to the West, affording an extensive range of commercial, educational and recreational facilities, as well as live theatre and district hospital. The bustling North Devon market town of South Molton is approximately 11 miles to the South. To the East Exmoor National Park offers beautiful moorland scenery and stunning North Devon coastline, whilst to the West are the popular sandy beaches of Instow, Saunton Sands, Croyde Bay, Putsborough and Woolacombe. From South Molton, the A361 North Devon Link Road provides easy access to Tiverton, and the M5 Motorway at Jct.27, with mainline intercity rail links available at Tiverton Parkway (London Paddington approx. 2 hours) and international airports at Exeter and Bristol.

DESCRIPTION

The Linhay comprises a detached conversion of a former farm building, which presents attractive elevations, partly stone and part rendered beneath a slate roof with double glazed windows. The accommodation is mainly arranged on one level, with just one en-suite bedroom at First Floor, and a generous roof space which may offer potential for conversion to additional accommodation, subject to planning permission. Otherwise the accommodation is spacious and versatile. Externally there is an attached double garage, ample parking, decking with a hot tub, lightly wooded gardens of good size. An additional 2 acres of land opposite the property is also available by separate negotiation.
