ROOKERY COTTAGE

THE PROPERTY

A rare opportunity to acquire an exceptional Grade II listed home dating back to the early 15th Century, rich in period features, charm and character, positioned within the heart of the highly regarded village of Burton Bradstock.

THE PROPERTY

Occupying an attractive position within this much-loved West Dorset village, this impressive historic home immediately captures attention with its local stone elevations and charming thatched roof.

Believed to date back to the early 1400s, the property has been lovingly maintained by the current owners for around 30 years and retains a wealth of original features. The welcoming entrance hall features flagstone flooring and traditional wooden panelling, leading to a spacious sitting room with an impressive inglenook fireplace, open fire, exposed beams and original window seat.

The kitchen adjoins the dining room, which provides a wonderful entertaining space with a central fireplace, wood-burning stove, wooden flooring, window seats and direct access to the gardens. The ground floor also benefits from a garden room, generous utility room and shower room.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with a spacious landing area, three characterful bedrooms, one with adjoining WC, and a separate family bathroom.

The gardens provide a private and enchanting setting, extending to the side and rear with a lawn, mature borders and a raised paved terrace, ideal for outdoor dining. Additional features include a greenhouse, log store and two external stores.

A truly special period home combining history, character and an enviable village location.
