A well presented one bedroom freehold house benefiting from its own private garden and a convenient position within easy walking distance of the village amenities.

The property has undergone a number of recent improvements, including replacement flooring, windows and front door, together with redecoration throughout, creating a fresh and well maintained home ready for the new owner to enjoy.

The accommodation begins with an entrance porch leading into the lounge, which is open plan to the kitchen and provides a practical and sociable living space. The bedroom benefits from an ensuite style bathroom, completing the internal accommodation.

Outside, the property enjoys its own private garden, providing valuable outdoor space.

Conveniently situated within a short walk of the local primary school, village shops and bus stops, the property is well placed for everyday amenities and transport connections. An ideal opportunity for first time buyers, downsizers or those seeking a freehold investment property.
