SITUATION

Kerslake Cottage occupies an enviable position within the hamlet of Meldon, set within the northern boundaries of the Dartmoor National Park. The property benefits from easy access onto the open moor with hundreds of square miles of completely unspoilt Moorland environment with unrivalled opportunities for out-riding, together with walking and cycling. There are various footpaths and bridleways leading onto the moor and easy access to the nearby Meldon Reservoir. The property is within easy reach of the A30 dual carriageway, which provides access west into Cornwall, whilst to the east is the Cathedral City of Exeter with its excellent shopping centre, M5 motorway, mainline rail and international air connections. The nearby town of Okehampton, known as The Northern Gateway to Dartmoor offers a train station to Exeter and beyond. There are a generous range of supermarkets (including a Waitrose), together with a good range of independent and nationally owned shops. Further benefits include schooling from infant to secondary school, doctors surgery, various sports and leisure clubs. a cinema and leisure centre.

DESCRIPTION

A deceptively spacious 3/4 bedroom cottage offered in good order throughout and benefitting from double glazing and oil fired central heating. The property benefits from two generous reception rooms, which offer character features, which include exposed timbers and beams and period fireplaces with wood burning/multi fuel stoves. There is a well fitted kitchen with breakfast bar and an adjoining utility room. The first floor serves 3/4 bedrooms, one of which is en suite and there is a further family bathroom. Externally the property will appeal to the equestrian buyer, having its own stable block, together with an adjoining paddock (Whole plot totals approximately 2.7 acres). From the property there is excellent out-riding onto quiet lanes and bridleways to the open moor and Meldon Reservoir. Further benefits include a detached garage and ample parking, well tended gardens to both front and rear and further sheds/stores.
