Market Building

This area of Manchester was dominated by the fruit, vegetable, poultry and fish markets. All of those markets are now gone, as are many of the buildings. The Wholesale Fish Market by Speakman, Son & Hickson in 1873, has been incorporated into a residential complex. The outside walls, gates and sculptures have been saved, along with some of the wrought iron internal columns.

The Tour

Located on the first floor the apartment is entered via a wooden front door, leading into a spacious hallway with wooden flooring.

Open Plan Living/Kitchen Area: The living room benefits from large floor to ceiling double glazed windows. Wooden flooring, wall mounted radiators, TV, phone & satellite points. The kitchen includes a range of base and wall units, tiled flooring, Electrolux hob with extractor hood, Electrolux Oven, Indesit washer dryer and an integrated fridge freezer.

Bathroom: Three piece white suite with large bath, fully tiled floor and partially tiled walls, wall mounted mirror, extractor fan, wall mounted heated towel rail.

The Area

Market Buildings is perfectly situated in the heart of Northern Quarter, making it the perfect location for those who enjoy having the city on their doorstep. Piccadilly Gardens, The Arndale and Cutting Room Square in Ancoats are only a stones throw away, home to many independent bars, restaurants and coffee shops. Victoria train station is only a short walk away, making this an ideal location for those commuting across the UK.
