IF YOU LIVED HERE...

As you enter your home through the charming, leafy frontage, you step immediately into your substantial reception room, finished in an elegant black and white aesthetic extending throughout your new home. The bright bay window is dressed in classic bistro shutters, while the open brick hearth adds a delightful period touch. Flowing seamlessly from the reception area, the bright and airy dining space offers effortless access to your garden.

To your right, the kitchen features sleek, handleless cabinetry, a black tiled splashback, smoky floor tiles and worktops and plentiful natural light from the rear garden door. Upstairs, there are two equally sized dove toned bedrooms, one with plush smoky carpeting and a large bay window, the other with ash wood flooring and a mirrored wardrobe. The first floor bathroom features a spacious shower cubicle in soft tones. An additional skylit loft bedroom with eaves storage completes things, spacious and bright.

Step outside, and you'll find yourself surrounded by options for wining, dining, and immersing yourself in local nature and culture. Lloyd Park is just five minutes on foot, for manicured gardens and the William Morris Gallery. Head south to Hoe Street, where you'll discover popular spots like The Bell, L'Hirondelle, and The Collab. Craving some traditional East London fare? Barney's Pie and Mash is right around the corner. Nature lovers can explore the Walthamstow Wetlands, a sprawling nature reserve of 500 acres, only twenty minutes from your doorstep.
