Location

Highfield Cottage is situated in a pleasant rural location within the parish of Westleton. The village benefits from a store and Post Office and has two pubs. The Suffolk Heritage Coast itself is easily accessible at nearby Dunwich, as is the internationally renowned RSPB Minsmere Bird Reserve, which has been home in the past to the BBC's Springwatch programme. Westleton itself has an excellent mix of permanent and second homes, and there is an impressive level of community activities in the village. The market town of Saxmundham lies a short drive to the south-west and has a good range of shops on its traditional high street, together with both Waitrose and Tesco supermarkets. Saxmundham railway station lies on the East Suffolk Line, giving services to Ipswich with connections to London's Liverpool Street station. There is also a station at Darsham, which is about 2.5 miles from the property. The world famous Snape Maltings Concert Hall is approximately 7 miles from the property. There is golf and sailing at Aldeburgh, which is approximately 8.5 miles away.

Description

Highfield Cottage is a detached dwelling of predominantly timber frame construction with a brick skin under a tiled roof. The property has been well maintained during the vendors ownership within the last 15 years. It has been re-roofed and many of the hardwood timber frame double glazed windows have been installed. The property has the benefit of having many period features such as exposed beams and inglenook fireplaces, but has the advantage of not being Listed.

A gable end main oak door provides access to the utility room. This has a pamment tile flooring, space and plumbing for a washing machine, tumble dryer and also a fridge freezer. There is a window to the rear of the property. A door opens to the kitchen which is fitted with high and low-level wall units with an integrated dishwasher and electric oven with four ring hob above. There is a one and a half bowl stainless steel sink and granite effect worksurface. A window overlooks the rear of the property. There is a pamment tile flooring and radiator. A door opens to the dining room where there is a brick fireplace with woodburning stove. The room has exposed timbers and a window to the front of the property as well as a store cupboard. A door leads to the snug and a further door opens to the sitting room. This charming, dual aspect room has French doors opening to the garden as well as a window and front door to the exterior. There is a brick fireplace with woodburning stove and fitted bookshelves. One of two sets of stairs rise to the first floor landing and a door opens to an inner lobby where there is access to both the bathroom and shower room. The shower room comprises a WC, handwash basin, large shower and radiator. There is a window with obscured glazing to the rear of the property. Adjacent is the spacious bathroom which has a WC, handwash basin, bath, window to the rear, storage cupboard and radiator. Also on the ground floor is the snug which is dual aspect. There is a window to the front and French doors to the side. The second staircase leads up to bedroom 3. This has a gable end window, a hatch to the roof space and a low-level door to bedroom 2. This double room has windows to the front of the property, a radiator and door to the landing where stairs return to the ground floor and a further door opens to the principal bedroom. This large double has exposed timbers and windows to the side and front.

Outside

The property is approached from the lane via two five bar gates to off-road parking. The garden, which is predominantly laid to grass, surrounds the house. There are two brick buildings along with a covered well and a pond. A pathway leads to a meadow which is fully fenced and contains young trees. This has a further access point onto the lane. In all, the ground extend to approximately 0.7 acres.
