"Simply stunning, extended bungalow large enough to be used as a family home and set on an enviable plot!" Having undergone a full renovation programme over recent years, this double bay fronted property has been finished to a high standard throughout and re-designed and altered to suit modern living now providing a light and airy, versatile layout. The property benefits from gas radiator central heating, double glazing, three double bedrooms with an en-suite to the master bedroom, a single garage and a landscaped garden where you will find a bespoke timber built tree house, variety of fruit trees and a greenhouse. This accommodation starts with a welcoming entrance hall with doors to two bay windowed double bedrooms to the front of the property, moving through the property you then enter a spacious dining room where you can either access the master bedroom and it's adjoining en-suite or continue towards the rear of the property into the principle living space. This living space, enhanced by it's impressive sky lantern, consists of a living room with bi-fold doors overlooking the established rear garden, a refitted kitchen with integrated appliances, solid wood worktops and a breakfast bar providing a partial divide to the breakfast room area. There is also a separate utility room and a refitted bathroom with the feature of a modern roll top bath. Externally there is an enclosed, landscaped rear garden mainly laid to lawn with a number of fruit, Bonsai and acer trees, a greenhouse and allotment area towards the rear and an attractive decking area with pond and water feature. There is also a timber balcony accessed via a ladder and a children's tree house. To the front there is a landscaped front garden, and a driveway leading to a single garage. A property that has to be seen in person to appreciate the size and quality of accommodation on offer. EPC Rating D, Council Tax Band C
