A distinctive contemporary home in a wonderfully peaceful coastal setting. Tucked away within a small and thoughtfully designed development, this distinctive contemporary home combines architectural flair with an exceptionally peaceful setting, while remaining wonderfully convenient for the timeless attractions of Blakeney and the North Norfolk coast. Designed with an appreciation for light, volume and natural materials, the house has an individuality that sets it apart. Striking vaulted sections rise through the heart of the accommodation, creating a wonderful sense of space and allowing natural light to flood the principal living areas. Exposed timber beams, warm oak joinery and extensive glazing add character and warmth to what is otherwise an inherently modern home.

The ground floor is centred around a superb open-plan kitchen and dining room, fitted with an attractive painted cabinetry scheme, granite work surfaces and a range-style cooker, while the adjoining dining area enjoys a dramatic vaulted ceiling and extensive glazing with doors that open directly outside. A separate dual aspect sitting room provides a more intimate retreat, with a handsome exposed brick fireplace and wood-burning stove forming a natural focal point. There are also a useful snug, utility room and cloakroom.

Upstairs, three well-proportioned bedrooms are arranged around a light-filled landing, with the principal bedroom also benefitting from an impressive, vaulted ceiling, exposed timber beam and glazed doors opening onto a Juliette-style balcony. The principal bedroom also benefits from an en-suite shower room, while a generous family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms.

Outside, the property enjoys a private garden with mature planting and established trees that create a degree of privacy, while paved seating areas provide space for outdoor dining and relaxing. The gardens are complemented by a broad gravelled approach, providing excellent parking and easy access to the detached garage. The detached garage is a particularly useful addition, offering secure parking, storage and practical space for those embracing the coastal lifestyle.

Blakeney

A COASTAL GEM
TO CALL HOME

Blakeney is a historic coastal village on the North Norfolk Coast, located around 28 miles north-west of Norwich and just over 5 miles from the market town of Holt, offering a distinctive seaside lifestyle with a strong sense of community and year-round appeal.

At the heart of village life is the quay on the River Glaven, where sailing, kayaking, crab fishing and seal-spotting are everyday pastimes. From here, boat trips run to Blakeney Point, home to one of England's largest colonies of grey seals and celebrated for birdwatching and wildlife experiences.

Blakeney's High Street and lanes are lined with pretty flint cottages, independent boutiques, art galleries, gift shops and cafés, while essentials are served by a SPAR convenience store and post office. The village also offers a selection of quality pubs and restaurants — among them the Kings Arms and White Horse — and seasonal outlets specialising in fresh seafood and treats from the estuary.

Outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate the North Norfolk Coast Path and marshland walks that radiate from the quay east toward Cley and west toward Stiffkey, as well as opportunities for sailing, paddleboarding and long beach walks at nearby Wells-next-the-Sea and Holkham.

Blakeney combines rich maritime heritage, vibrant local retail and café culture, and outstanding natural landscapes, creating a lifestyle that celebrates coastal living, wildlife engagement and genuine village vitality with excellent connections to town and city amenities.
