41 Campden Hill Square

London, W8 7JR

- Five Bedrooms
- Freehold
- Open Plan Island Kitchen
- Two Bathrooms
- Excellent Basement
- Walled Terrace Garden

A beautifully presented five bedroom, two bathroom Arts and Crafts house with a private terrace, quietly tucked between the iconic white stucco villas of Holland Park. Originally built in 1929 by renowned architect T.P. Figgis, the current owners have created an exceptional family home by adding a substantial basement with excellent ceiling heights, providing superb entertaining space, a home office and a second pantry kitchen.

The house is in excellent condition throughout and occupies a peaceful position just moments from Holland Park, Notting Hill and Kensington High Street. Residents can also apply for access to one of Kensington's most sought after private garden squares, while the outstanding Fox Primary School is nearby, making this an outstanding family home in one of Kensington's most desirable locations.
