Location

Charles Street is a quiet residential road in the historic market town of Hedon, just east of Kingston upon Hull. Situated within easy reach of Hedon's town centre, the street benefits from close proximity to local shops, cafés, and everyday amenities, while retaining a peaceful neighbourhood feel. The area is well connected by road to Hull and the wider East Riding, making it convenient for commuters, and it also lies near open countryside and the Humber estuary for those who enjoy coastal and rural surroundings. With its blend of small-town charm and accessibility, Charles Street offers a pleasant setting within one of the region's most characterful communities.
