Step inside this enchanting two-bedroom period cottage, dating back to circa 1680, beautifully blending historic character with modern comfort. Brimming with charm and timeless features, this unique home offers generous living space and a wonderfully warm, inviting atmosphere throughout.

Perfectly positioned in the heart of Sandridge village, you'll enjoy a wonderful balance of peaceful village living with easy access to St Albans City Centre and nearby Marshalswick, both offering a great selection of shops, cafés, and amenities.

Inside, a cosy lounge welcomes you with a feature fireplace, creating the perfect spot to relax. The kitchen diner offers a breakfast bar, ample storage, and plenty of room for entertaining. This floor also benefits from a cloakroom and downstairs bathroom, adding to its convenience and functionality.

Upstairs, the character continues with a large landing with exposed beams, leading to a spacious double bedroom complete with built-in storage. This floor also features a family bathroom and access to a balcony overlooking the courtyard, annexe, and garage – a truly unique feature. The top floor boasts a bright and airy master bedroom, filled with natural light.

To the rear, you'll find an annexe study overlooking the pretty courtyard garden – ideal for home working or a peaceful retreat. The property also benefits from its own garage and parking, a rare advantage for a cottage of this charm and style.

The village of Sandridge offers three friendly country pubs, a local convenience store, and stunning countryside walks, including the much-loved Heartwood Forest. For commuters, both St Albans and Harpenden are close by, offering excellent shopping, leisure facilities, and mainline train links to London St Pancras.

This delightful home perfectly blends village charm and city convenience – a rare opportunity not to be missed.
