Offered with no onward chain, this well-presented one double bedroom apartment has been recently redecorated and benefits from its own private entrance directly from the car park. The property is set within the highly regarded gated retirement development of Swannery Court, ideally located close to Weymouth Town Centre, the hospital, doctors' surgery, pharmacy, transport links and local shops.

The apartment can be accessed via the main reception area or through a set of double doors leading straight into the living space. Inside, the accommodation is well arranged and includes a welcoming entrance hallway, a spacious lounge/diner, a well-equipped fitted kitchen, a generous double bedroom with built-in wardrobes, and a bathroom.

Swannery Court is a sought-after retirement community positioned on the edge of Weymouth Town Centre, just a five-minute level walk from the award-winning beach. The development comprises 70 thoughtfully designed one and two bedroom apartments, all created with easy mobility in mind and offering generous living areas and ample storage. A resident manager is on site five days a week, supported by a 24-hour Careline alarm system for added reassurance.

Communal facilities include a comfortable residents' lounge with balcony and kitchenette, a laundry room, and beautifully maintained landscaped gardens. A varied programme of social activities is organised by the residents, fostering a friendly and welcoming community.

Residents must be aged 55 or over.
