

Clover Cottage, Chiltern Lane, Hazlemere, Buckinghamshire, HP15 7BN - £835,000

Charming 6-bed brick and flint cottage in Old Hazlemere, 3 baths, loft conversion, garage, parking, private gardens, near countryside and village amenities. Beautifully presented throughout.

This exceptional, six bedroom, detached house is positioned on a private lane in the sought-after area of Old Hazlemere, offering a rare blend of countryside tranquillity and convenient access to local amenities. Constructed by renowned local developers, Country Craftsman, this brick and flint cottage showcases an abundance of character and charm with traditional features that reflect the heritage of Buckinghamshire architecture. Stepping inside, there is a welcoming entrance hall leading to most of the ground floor, including the beautifully appointed sitting room featuring an impressive inglenook fireplace, the separate dining room, the all-important cloakroom and the fitted kitchen/breakfast room, which then leads to the utility room. The current owner has thoughtfully enhanced the home, refurbishing the bathrooms and cloakroom to a high standard, and recently completing a loft conversion that adds two further bedrooms and a stylish shower room. In total, 6 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms/shower rooms, making this an ideal family home or a superb option for those seeking versatile guest or work-from-home spaces. The property also features gas fired radiator central heating with a new boiler and sealed unit double glazing. The interior is immaculately presented throughout with a layout that balances modern convenience and timeless style. Additional features include a detached single garage and a dedicated parking bay, ensuring ample parking for residents and visitors. The location is particularly desirable, situated in a peaceful setting close to open countryside, yet just moments from the amenities and community atmosphere of the village crossroads. This delightful home offers a unique opportunity to acquire a property of genuine character and quality, thoughtfully updated for contemporary living while retaining its original charm.
