SITUATION & AMENITIES

Situated in the heart of this favoured village which centres around the ancient parish church and offers character inn and primary school. Barnstaple, the regional centre is about three miles and offers the area's main business, commercial, leisure and shopping venues. At Barnstaple there is access to the A361, North Devon Link Road which provides communications to and from North Devon area, connecting directly as it does through to Junction 27 of the M5 motorway to the east side of Tiverton where there is also the Parkway railway station. Some seven/ eight miles to the west of Barnstaple, there is access onto the dramatic North Devon coastline with beaches at Instow together with sailing and further beaches at Croyde, Putsborough, Saunton and Woolacombe where there is also surfing. A similar distance to the North-East is access onto the Exmoor National Park, providing outstanding riding and walking.

DESCRIPTION

Understood to have been built circa 1620, Willesleigh Cottage is a delightful Grade II listed thatched cottage which is a perfect example of combining many original features with quality 21st century refinements such as extensive use of Oak joinery for the doors and slate throughout the downstairs flooring and window sills, exposed beams, inglenook fireplace etc. The accommodation is deceptively larger than it would appear from the outside and offers light and spacious accommodation. The garden of the property is simply stunning and is certainly the extra 'wow' factor that you may not expect when first looking at the property, it is approximately 0.26 acres of garden, Southfacing and boasts superb unspoilt countryside views. This is certainly a property that needs to be seen to be fully appreciated.
