12 Farrar Road is a freshly renovated home, conveniently situated at the bottom of Farrar Road, just off the top of the high street. The property contains 6 double bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, a living area and kitchen. All Bedrooms are sizable, containing all the necessary amenities, including a double bed, clothing storage, desk and chair.

Featuring a spacious living room and rear courtyard, this house ideal for socialising with housemates and even hosting friends. In addition, there is also a fully fitted kitchen featuring kitchen essentials such as a gas cooker, hob, washing machine, dishwasher and larger fridge freezer, providing you and your housemates with plenty of cold storage.

Located just off the high street, the property is a 30 second walk from two large supermarkets, as well as being a very short walk from Bangor train station, making shopping and travel highly convenient. Slightly further down the road is the city centre, in which there is plenty of café's, restaurants, retail shops and places to socialise late into the night.
