DESCRIPTION

HUNTERS COLLECTION — Buckland Way

Beautifully presented from top to bottom, this extended three-bedroom home combines generous proportions, contemporary styling and a layout designed around modern family life. The ground floor begins with an inviting sitting area centred around the front bay window, flooding the room with natural light, while a stylish feature wall provides a smart focal point. The accommodation flows seamlessly through to a generous dining area, before continuing into the extended separate kitchen at the rear, offering plenty of storage, preparation space and direct access to the garden.

And what a garden it is. Enjoying a southerly aspect, this beautifully landscaped outside space is a genuine highlight, with a generous patio area providing the perfect setting for summer dining and entertaining. Established beds, mature planting and a cacophony of colour create a wonderfully established backdrop throughout the warmer months. Upstairs, the principal bedroom features another attractive bay window alongside extensive built-in storage, with a further generous double bedroom and a flexible third room ideal as a child's bedroom, nursery, dressing room or home office. A smart modern family bathroom completes the first floor, while there is also potential to extend into the loft, subject to the usual permissions and consents.

To the front, a private driveway provides off-street parking for two cars, while the location offers an excellent balance of schools, amenities and transport connections. Worcester Park and Stoneleigh stations provide convenient services towards London Waterloo, with further links towards Sutton, New Malden, Kingston and Morden. Stylish inside, colourful outside and beautifully looked after throughout – the difficult bit has already been done. The only real decision is who gets the best spot on the patio.
