ABOUT THE HOME

A stunning five double bedroom Victorian freehold house measuring in excess of 2000 square feet on a highly desirable road in Streatham. This lovely home has been renovated and extended to a terrific standard, featuring luxury details throughout, including a home cinema room in the basement. The garden is south facing and much wider than average and includes a high quality summer house. There is also off street car parking.

Lewin Road is a sought after road with a real sense of community, with being perfectly located close to popular cafés and restaurants. The wide open spaces on Streatham common are only a stones throw away, with Streatham common station (Southern railway) and local bus routes all allowing for frequent access into and out of the City.
