HERE TO GET you THERE

Salisbury Road, Southall, UB2 5RD

This impressive apartment offers stylish, practical, and exceptionally spacious living, making it an ideal choice for first-time buyers, professionals, families, or investors.

The property features a bright open-plan reception room and modern kitchen, creating a welcoming and sociable space for both relaxing and entertaining. Large windows allow an abundance of natural light to flow through the home, enhancing the bright and airy feel of each room.

The living area opens directly out onto a large private terrace, seamlessly extending the living space outdoors. A standout feature, the terrace enjoys panoramic, wide-open views across the Grand Union Canal and is surrounded by greenery and mature trees — creating a rare indoor-outdoor living experience in a quiet and peaceful setting.

Both bedrooms are generously sized and well proportioned, while the contemporary kitchen and bathroom are finished to a high standard.

The property has been well maintained and further benefits from excellent built-in storage, including a large walk-in utility/storage cupboard and additional hallway storage.

Additional benefits include lift access, allocated parking, and access to well-maintained communal gardens.

Gibson Point is ideally positioned within easy reach of the Elizabeth Line, offering fast and direct access into Central London and Heathrow, while enjoying a peaceful canal-side setting and rare balance of connectivity and tranquillity.

A rare opportunity to acquire a spacious modern apartment with genuine outdoor space, open views, and a peaceful waterside setting.
