This barn conversion presents a rare opportunity to create a bespoke countryside home, with full planning consent already granted. Set in a peaceful rural village and enjoying uninterrupted countryside views, the property sits within a charming courtyard that enhances the sense of community and offers a versatile space for outdoor relaxation or landscaping.

The proposed plans include a well-designed two-bedroom mid-terrace layout, featuring open-plan living accommodation. The home offers flexibility for a range of living needs, whether as a permanent residence, holiday retreat or investment.

Located in the picturesque village of Middleton by Youlgreave, in the heart of the Peak District National Park, the property is ideal for lovers of the outdoors, with stunning walks at Bradford Dale and Lathkill Dale just moments away. The nearby village of Youlgreave provides convenient amenities, including grocery shops, a post office, cafes and traditional country inns.
