INTRODUCTION

Stairfield Farmhouse is a beautifully presented traditionally built farmhouse with spectacular view over the surrounding countryside towards Wigtown Bay. The property has recently undergone a bespoke renovation which showcases the original features and whilst being sympathetic to a building of its age, the property incorporates all features for modern family living. The works undertaken have been thoughtfully planned with the attention to detail being second to none. The whole property is in walk-in condition offering four spacious bedrooms, farmhouse kitchen, bright and spacious sunroom, dining room, sitting room, lounge, utility room, etc. A more detailed description of the accommodation along with a floor plan can be found later within these sales particulars.

Within the landscaped garden grounds there are areas which have been set aside, including a raised balcony, to enjoy the beautiful peaceful surroundings, stunning sunsets and spectacular dark skies. The location is such that a bounty of native wildlife can be enjoyed on a daily basis.

To further complement this wonderful family home, a detached one-bedroom annex has also recently been renovated with the same attention to detail. This has huge potential for accommodating extended family or indeed for tourism purposes, there may also be further development potential within the annex building. In addition, there is about 5.5 acres of grazing land, stables and a detached stone-built workshop making this the perfect package for those seeking a rural lifestyle.

Whithorn, only a short drive from Stairfield, is a friendly rural community offering a range of local services including a primary school, pharmacy, post office and shops. Whithorn is best known for its historical significance, being closely associated with St Ninian, Scotland's first saint.

The town centre itself is steeped in history, still retaining its medieval street layout with a wide market square and long garden plots. Whithorn is also proud to be a recognised UNESCO Biosphere Community, a status that reflects its commitment to sustainability, heritage, and local culture.

Just a few miles away lies the Isle of Whithorn, a charming coastal village with a picturesque harbour and the remains of St Ninian's Chapel, standing as a reminder of the area's historical past. Beyond its history, the region offers a wealth of outdoor pursuits such as cycling through the scenic Machars on marked trails, enjoy coastal and countryside walks, fishing or golf, or simply enjoy the area's exceptional birdlife.

The Machars peninsula also boasts numerous sandy beaches and secluded coves within easy reach, making it ideal for family outings or quiet coastal escapes. Both Whithorn and the Isle of Whithorn offer opportunities for eating out, shopping, and experiencing local hospitality, with several nearby golf courses and leisure activities to enjoy.

This area of Southwest Scotland enjoys one of the most varied and picturesque landscapes within Scotland, ranging from the moorland of the Southern Upland Hills to the bays and sandy beaches of the distinctive coastline. This is a rural county where agriculture and tourism thrive to form the backbone of the local economy. The area has been relatively unscathed by modern industry.

The region is well-known for the quality and variety of both field sports and leisure activities with the outdoor and sporting enthusiasts extremely well-catered for with fishing available locally. Given the diverse landscape along with the proximity to the coast and local lochs, the area offers unique walks, sailing, cycling and for the golfer there is an abundance of local courses. The area is distinctly rural in character with agriculture and tourism forming the backbone of the local economy.
