Set back from the road with a lawned frontage and off-street parking, the property immediately presents a welcoming first impression, complemented by its attractive stone elevations and traditional character.

Internally, the accommodation is both spacious and well-balanced. The heart of the home is a well-appointed kitchen, offering an abundance of storage and workspace, alongside ample room for dining or informal family living. A separate utility room adds practicality, while the adjoining garage provides further storage or potential for conversion, subject to the necessary consents.

The main living room is a standout feature, a generous, light-filled space centred around a charming stone fireplace with a multi-fuel stove, creating a cosy focal point. Dual aspect windows enhance the sense of space and light, making this an ideal room for both relaxing and entertaining. A second reception room offers flexibility, perfect as a snug, playroom or home office.

To the first floor, the property continues to impress with well-proportioned bedrooms, all enjoying a pleasant outlook. The principal bedroom is particularly spacious, while the additional bedrooms are ideal for family living or guests. A family bathroom and separate shower room cater well to modern day needs, and a further office/study provides an excellent work-from-home solution.

Outside, the property benefits from a private setting within this desirable village, known for its strong community, local amenities, and excellent access to Whitby and the surrounding North York Moors.

This is a superb opportunity to acquire a generously sized home with scope to personalise, in a picturesque and well-connected village location, ideal for growing families or those seeking a lifestyle move to the coast and countryside.
