Cathedral View is a beautifully restored period building situated in the heart of Sheffield City Centre. Recently renovated to an exceptional standard, the development comprises 18 stylish, state-of-the-art apartments, including a selection of studio, one, and two-bedroom homes, each designed with its own unique character.

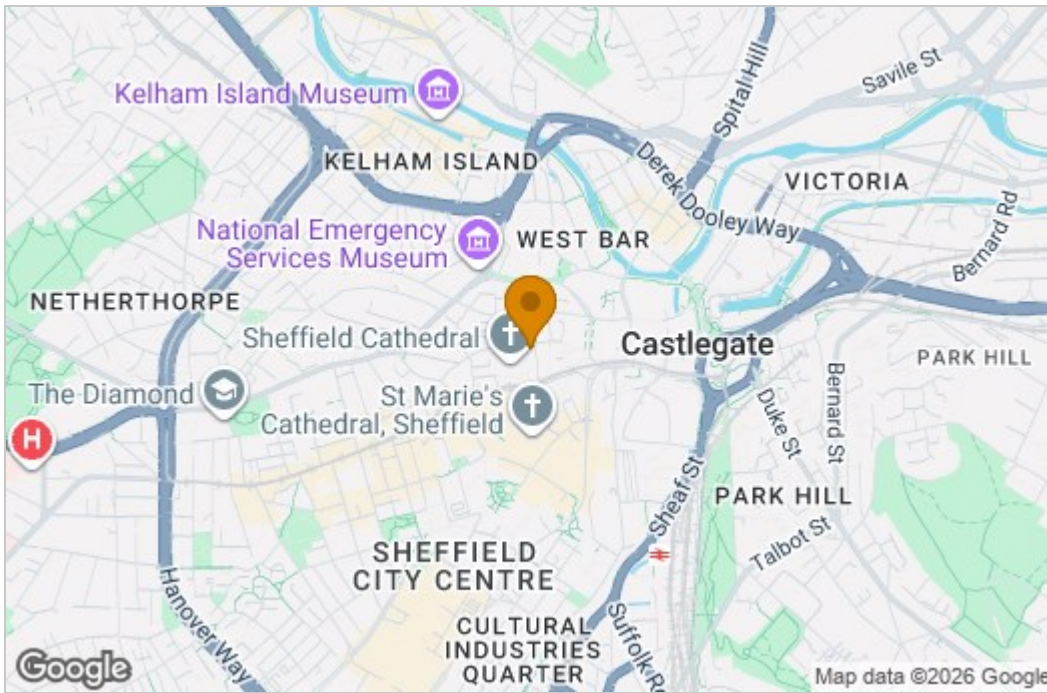

Perfectly positioned just a stone's throw from the Cathedral tram stop and the main high street, the location offers outstanding convenience for transport links, shopping, and vibrant city living. The striking Sheffield Cathedral directly opposite further enhances the building's charm and provides a truly distinctive setting.

This first floor, one bedroom apartment is available for immediate occupation. Upon entering, you are welcomed into the kitchen living room by an abundance of natural light streaming through large windows, offering stunning views across to Sheffield Cathedral. The high-specification kitchen is a standout feature, complete with integrated appliances including a dishwasher, full size fridge, oven, hob, and microwave. Another great bonus for this apartment is the added extras including a large wall mounted TV, crockery, pots & cutlery meaning you can move in and immediately feel relaxed that everything you need is already in.
