Summary

Nestled on Magdalens Road this delightful extended detached bungalow offers a perfect blend of comfort and versatility, making it an ideal home for multi-generational families. Set within expansive mature gardens, where most rooms benefit from park views the property boasts three spacious reception rooms, three bedrooms, kitchen, extensive loft rooms, huge storage offerings all providing ample space for relaxation and entertainment.

The bungalow features three well-appointed bedrooms, including one with an en-suite bathroom, ensuring privacy and convenience for family members or guests with the addition of dressing area and fitted wardrobes and storage. To the side is a store (former garage) which with some alterations (subject to necessary consents) could house a kitchen which would make this side of the property completely self contained. The ground floor also includes a fitted breakfast kitchen, a large dining room, a bright garden room which opens directly on to a private enclosed seating area with palm tree and summer house. For those seeking additional space, the loft area is currently utilized as a study and occasional bedroom with sitting area and is completed with a shower room providing privacy and comfort.

Parking is a breeze with a double garage and generous space for up to six further vehicles, making it perfect for families with multiple cars or for hosting gatherings. The property is set on a fabulous plot, offering lovely views over Paddie's Park, and is conveniently located within an easy walk of Ripon's city centre, where you can enjoy a variety of amenities, schools including Ripon Grammar, shops, and eateries.

This bungalow is not just a home; it is a sanctuary that provides flexible living arrangements in a picturesque setting with sizeable accommodation. Whether you are looking to settle down or seeking a peaceful retreat, this property is sure to impress. Don't miss the opportunity to make this charming bungalow your own.
