Three double bedrooms, plenty of living space and no onward chain... Halt Drive certainly knows how to make an entrance.

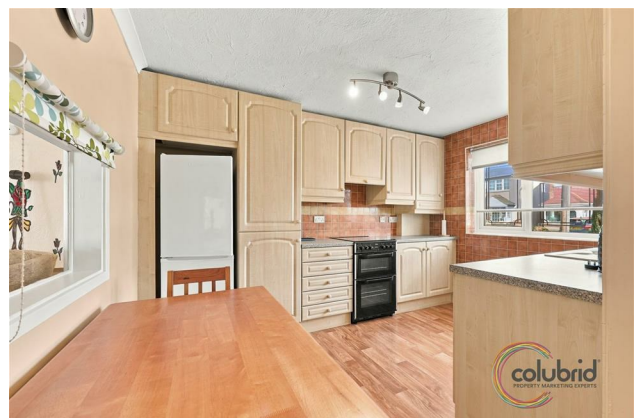

This spacious semi-detached home in Linford has all the ingredients for comfortable family living, starting with an entrance porch and inviting hallway, plus that ever-useful ground floor WC.

There's a good size kitchen/breakfast room for everything from the morning coffee rush to Sunday brunch, a lovely size lounge made for putting your feet up, and an extended dining room with plenty of space for dinner parties, family gatherings or simply spreading out.

Upstairs, things get even better with three double bedrooms — no arguments over who gets the small room here — alongside a well-appointed shower room.

Step outside and you'll find a pleasant rear garden ready for summer evenings, barbecues and a bit of weekend pottering. Driveway parking and a garage take care of the practical side too.

And the finishing touch? It's being sold with no onward chain, helping to make your next move that little bit simpler.
