The kitchen

The kitchen diner forms the heart of the home, stretching across the rear extension to create a sociable space for everyday cooking and casual dining. Contrasting cabinetry houses integrated appliances and a brick feature wall gives the room character. A wide opening connects to the vaulted dining room and out to the garden, while generous worktops and storage make this a practical hub.

The dining room

Used for family meals and entertaining, the dining room adjoins the kitchen diner within the extension. A vaulted ceiling with rooflights and clerestory windows adds a sense of airiness, while bi-fold doors open on to the patio and garden. The room links directly with the kitchen and enjoys views over the outdoor space.

The living room

This comfortable reception room is ideal for relaxation and entertaining. Its focal point is a stone fireplace with wood burning stove set beneath a carved mantel, creating a cosy centrepiece and a door leads through to the gym/playroom.

The study

Positioned at the front of the home, the study provides a quiet space for working from home or reading. A broad front facing window offers a pleasant outlook over the approach. Its location off the hall makes it a convenient yet private additional reception room.

The gym/playroom

Currently arranged as a home gym and playroom, this flexible room lies beyond the living room. A full height mirror to one wall reflects the space and French doors open directly into the garden, creating a seamless transition for exercise or play. The room could equally serve as a hobbies room or additional family room.

The entrance hall and cloakroom

The entrance hall sets the tone for the property, carpeted stairs rise to the first floor and doors connect to the principal rooms. The adjacent cloakroom is fitted with a sleek vanity unit, WC and basin, offering convenience for guests. Together, they create a welcoming and practical entrance to the home.

The primary bedroom

The primary bedroom is a generous retreat positioned at the rear of the first floor. It features a wall of built-in wardrobes providing plentiful storage and space for a large bed. A doorway leads through to the en suite and dressing room, creating a private suite for the owners.

The primary en suite

The en suite is a modern facility for the primary bedroom. It includes a large walk-in shower with rainfall head, a contemporary vanity unit with inset basin and a WC, all set beneath a sloping ceiling. A window provides ventilation and a sense of space, with direct access to the primary dressing room.

The second bedroom

The second bedroom is a comfortable double room with a window overlooking the garden. A run of mirrored wardrobes along one wall offers generous built-in storage. There is space for additional freestanding furniture and easy access to the family bathroom.

The third bedroom

A spacious bedroom currently set up as a twin, the third bedroom overlooks the front. Its size allows flexibility for twin beds or a double arrangement. This room is ideal for children or guests and there is ample space for additional furniture.

The fourth bedroom

The fourth bedroom is a cosy room with a front aspect window. It is presently used as a child's room but would equally suit guests or hobbies. Its adaptable nature adds to the versatility of the first floor accommodation.

The bathroom

Serving bedrooms two to four, the family bathroom has been updated in a contemporary style. It features a P-shaped bath with shower over, a sleek vanity unit with basin and a WC. Dark panelling contrasts with light walls, while an obscure glazed window ensures privacy.

The garden

The rear garden provides a delightful outdoor haven for families. A paved patio spans the back of the home, perfect for outdoor dining and barbecues. Beyond is a level lawn bordered by hedging and mature trees, together with space for a dedicated play. The garden backs on to open fields, enjoying a rural outlook yet remaining enclosed and secure.

The driveway and parking

To the front of the property a gravelled driveway offers parking for several vehicles and gives access to the integral garage. The approach is shared with neighbouring homes and framed by mature hedging.
