Entrance

A small entrance hall provides access to the living room, bedroom, and the wet room. There is also a useful storage cupboard.

Living Room

The room is full of natural light coming in from the Juliet balcony to the rear elevation, with a full opening glazed door and side panels ensuring that there is always plenty of sunlight and ventilation. There is room for a small sofa and chairs, depending on the configuration you choose, and there is space for a television table. The room has an opening through an arch into the kitchen.

Kitchen

Fitted with a range of white units at wall and base level and with black worksurfaces running over. There is an integral ceramic hob, electric oven, inset stainless steel sink and drainer, and undercounter space for a fridge.

Bedroom

Large enough for a double bed, though currently set up with a single. There is plenty of shelving and hanging space concealed away discreetly behind a curtain, and you will find a window to the rear elevation.

Wet Room

With an electric shower, pedestal wash-hand basin and a WC. There are adaptations to aid access where required.

Webster Yard Development
