- Refurbished to an exacting standard
- Three bedrooms
- Double fronted
- Terrace perfect for entertaining
- Located moments from King Cross

A stunningly refurbished 3 bedroom freehold Grade II listed double fronted house set in the highly desirable Keystone Crescent Conservation Area, just moments from King's Cross. Refurbished to an exacting standard by the current owners, the property benefits from 3 double bedrooms; an envious walk-in wardrobe leading to the master luxury bathroom; on the lower level is the living/kitchen space perfect for entertaining including a bespoke bar area with built in wine rack and fridge; the living room leads to the private terrace which affords a sheltered area to the rear. Keystone Crescent is an charming and quiet pocket just to the north east of King's Cross. It offers the rare combination of calm residential character alongside superb proximity to the dynamic amenities, cultural attractions and international transport connections of King's Cross and nearby neighbourhoods. Within close proximity to King's Cross & St. Pancras, meaning easy access to shops, restaurants, cafés, galleries and cultural venues (including Coal Drops Yard and Granary Square). King's Cross & St. Pancras stations are a few minutes away, offering multiple Underground lines (Circle, Hammersmith & City, Metropolitan, Northern, Piccadilly, Victoria) and national / international services via Thameslink, Midlands, and Eurostar. Various bus routes run through the area, giving rapid connections to neighbouring districts such as Camden, Bloomsbury, Islington and the City. Excellent pedestrian links to Regent's Canal, Granary Square and the Regent's Park stretch; also well served by Santander cycle hire docking stations nearby. Famously Keystone Crescent has featured in many feature films, tv shows, adverts and music videos.
