Set in the heart of Radyr village, this remarkable detached family home has been completely transformed to create a warm, contemporary residence where space, light and comfort combine effortlessly. 20 Windsor Road, has been designed around the way modern families live, with the house offering generous accommodation throughout, two reception rooms, flowing open-plan areas and carefully considered finishes that balance everyday practicality with understated luxury. The centrepiece of the home is a spectacular kitchen, dining and family space. Occupying the full width of the rear of the property, this generous space is perfect for daily family life and entertaining. With floor to ceiling doors that open directly onto the stunning rear terrace and the added bonus of delightful side garden. Upstairs, four spacious double bedrooms provide excellent accommodation, including a superb master bedroom with dressing room and en-suite, alongside a second en-suite bedroom and a stylish family bathroom. The loft offers further potential for expansion, subject to consent, giving the home further long-term flexibility. The gardens are arranged to capture the south-facing sun, creating a private outdoor space for children and entertaining alike, while the gated frontage adds security and convenience. Perfectly positioned for village life, the property is within walking distance of Radyr's independent shops, tennis and golf clubs, cafés, parks and transport links. It sits in the catchment for highly regarded local primary schools and Radyr Comprehensive School, making it an ideal long-term family home. Viewings are highly recommended to appreciate this stunning home.
