Bodenham Close
Buckingham

Property Description

Located on a popular and well-established development and backing directly onto the beautiful green open space of Bourton Park, this spacious home offers a superb blend of generous accommodation, flexibility and convenience. The property enjoys an enviable position close to amenities, countryside walks and local transport links.

The ground floor is arranged to offer excellent living space throughout. The property opens with a welcoming hall leading to a bright sitting room at the front of the home. A separate dining room provides an ideal formal or family dining area and leads through to the conservatory, which overlooks the garden and brings in wonderful natural light. The main kitchen sits centrally, while a separate annex kitchen offers valuable versatility for multigenerational living, guests or extended family. A ground-floor WC completes the layout.

Upstairs, the home features three well-proportioned bedrooms accessed from the main landing, served by a family bathroom. The first floor also includes an annex bedroom with its own en-suite, offering an excellent private space that can serve as guest accommodation, a teenager's suite, or a dedicated workspace.

Externally, the rear garden is expansive and enjoys a generous lawned area, providing an ideal space for outdoor relaxation, family play, or entertaining made even more appealing by the peaceful backdrop of Bourton Park behind. To the front there is a generous driveway.
