The Property

Offered to the market chain free, this well-presented end-of-terrace house is situated in a popular village location and offers spacious, practical accommodation ideal for a range of buyers, including first-time purchasers, families, and investors. The property provides approximately 890 sq ft of living space and benefits from gas heating, an enclosed rear garden, and parking available nearby.

The accommodation includes a spacious lounge, providing a comfortable area for relaxing and entertaining, along with a kitchen/diner that offers plenty of room for everyday family living. There are three bedrooms, giving flexibility for use as sleeping accommodation, a home office, or guest space. The property also benefits from both a family bathroom and a separate shower room, adding convenience for busy households.

Outside, the enclosed rear garden provides a private outdoor space suitable for children, pets, or gardening.

Soham is a popular Cambridgeshire town offering a good range of local amenities, including shops, eateries, everyday services, and both primary and secondary schooling. The town is well placed for access to Ely, Newmarket and Cambridge, with the A142 nearby and onward links to the A14. Soham also benefits from its own railway station, providing useful rail connections for commuters. With a blend of convenience, community feel and strong transport links, Soham is a desirable location for a wide range of buyers and tenants.

This home is located in a sought-after village setting, offering a balance of residential comfort and local convenience. With its generous accommodation, enclosed garden, and chain free position, this property represents an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a home that is ready to move forward without the complications of an onward chain.
