A rare opportunity to own this classic, Cornelius designed three/four bedroom detached family residence which is set in a sheltered yet prominent location on one of Falmouth's most recognisable palm lined avenues which is the gateway to our town and its surrounds.

The Rowans has pleasing double fronted elevations to the front with two matching round bays with reproduction UPVC double glazed windows and leaded light fanlights over plus a large central coloured slate faced dormer.

The house is packed with features including UPVC double glazed windows, gas fired central heating by radiators, a focal point fireplace in both reception rooms, a wealth of natural woodwork and much more besides.

The versatile accommodation includes on the ground floor, an entrance vestibule, reception hall, sitting room (could make and fourth bedroom), lounge/dining room, fitted kitchen, luxurious shower room/wc and a double bedroom. The first floor has a superb master bedroom suite with dressing area and shower room, bedroom three and a small ante room to one side. Outside, the house is approached over a wide gently sloping brick paviour driveway which provides a generous parking and turning area for a number of vehicles and leads to a detached garage and steps leading up to the front terrace and door. At the rear of the house there are superb landscaped gardens with a number ascending terraces that enjoy a sunny aspect.

The house is well positioned within a short walk to a couple of local well known supermarkets, Falmouth Marina and Upper Deck Restaurant and open playing fields opposite. The town offers a broad range of independent high street shops together with a diverse selection of restaurants, cafes, public houses and bars plus The Maritime Museum, Pendennis Castle, our famous sea front and beaches and a number of university campuses and schools from nursery to school leavers.
