Nethercoombe House Marston Road, Sherborne DT9 4BL

'Nethercoombe House' is a handsome, period, deceptively spacious (3575 square feet), double-fronted, detached house offering seven double bedrooms and situated in a secret 'tucked away' location, set back from the Marston Road, a short walk to the heart of this pretty Dorset town and mainline railway station to London Waterloo. The property boasts a generous plot extending to 0.15 acres approximately, a level main garden enjoying a good degree of privacy and a sunny southerly aspect. The house has a driveway accessed off Coombe providing off road parking for one car, leading to a single garage. The property is enviably free from the restrictions of Grade II listing and yet retains many original period character features including excellent ceiling heights, period panel doors and mouldings, carved Hamstone window surrounds and working panelled shutters. The well-arranged, deceptively spacious accommodation is in good decorative order throughout and enjoys good level of natural light from a south-facing aspect at the front. The accommodation comprises entrance reception hall, sitting room with working open fireplace, 'wow-factor' open-plan kitchen family room, large utility room, snug / reception room two, music room / inner hall, conservatory, ground floor shower room and ground floor WC / Cloakroom. There are two staircases accessing the first floor. The first staircase leads to a first floor landing area, four generous double bedrooms, a family bathroom, separate shower room / WC and separate WC. Two staircases rise from the first floor to the second floor. One leads to two further double bedrooms. The other leads to a master double bedroom with dual aspect and great views of Sherborne town.
