

Camomile Close, Abbeymead, GL4
Gloucester

£525,000

Bedrooms: 4 | Bathrooms: 2 | Receptions: 2

An executive-style detached home, situated in a sought-after location, offers spacious and versatile living arrangements, ideal for contemporary family life, ensuring comfort and functionality for everyone, complemented by a double garage and an inviting garden.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a well-appointed reception hall that leads to the main living areas. The dual-aspect living room is a bright and airy space, perfect for family relaxation and social gatherings. The heart of this home is the impressive open-plan kitchen, diner, and family space, designed for seamless living, homework supervision, and entertaining. The central hall flows effortlessly into a garden room at the rear, offering a tranquil spot for reading or a dedicated play area, all while enjoying views of the outdoor space.

The property boasts four well-proportioned bedrooms, providing comfortable and private retreats for every family member. The master bedroom benefits from an en-suite bathroom, offering a serene sanctuary for parents. A further family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms, ensuring ample facilities for busy mornings.

Externally, the low-maintenance garden is designed for family enjoyment without extensive upkeep, providing a safe and pleasant area for children to play. A particular highlight is the detached garden entertaining space, perfect for outdoor dining, children's parties, or simply relaxing with loved ones. The double garage offers secure parking and additional storage, and uniquely, includes an attached office and store, providing flexible options for those working from home or needing extra utility space for family equipment.

This home is presented in immaculate condition throughout, reflecting careful maintenance and attention to detail. Its design and features cater perfectly to families seeking a comfortable, stylish, and practical residence with excellent amenities.

REF DH0109

