Offers Over £260,000

An excellent opportunity to purchase semi-detached, three-bedroom house in the sought after Westhill area of Inverness. With well-proportioned room sizes and easy access to the City Centre and amenities, this property offers a lovely family home.

Immaculately presented, the ground floor accommodation comprises of bright and inviting entrance hall, lounge with open plan access to the modern kitchen, conservatory and WC. On the first floor the landing gives way to the main double bedroom with fitted wardrobes, second double bedroom and one single bedroom. The spacious family shower room completes the accommodation. This property also benefits from gas central heating controlled by a thermostat system and double glazing throughout.

Private outdoor space includes an easily maintained rear garden, private driveway and attached, single garage with internal access from the entrance hall. The garage has been partitioned into a utility area and storage space.

Appealing to a range of buyers, early viewing is recommended.

LOCATION

Situated in the established Westhill district on the East side of Inverness, this property offers a favourable location in a popular residential area.

Local amenities within walking distance include convenience store, take away restaurant, hair and beauty salons and nursery school.
