Property Details

An impressive Victorian home, beautifully finished to create a stylish four double bedroom, three bathroom house with a landscaped garden and striking glass-framed room overlooking the garden. Tucked away on a residential close between Brixton and Clapham, the property boasts charming period façades and a useful external store opposite the front door. Inside, a vast open-plan reception and wraparound kitchen spans the depth of the home, flooded with natural light and designed for sociable living. A bay-fronted lounge sits to the front, while bifold doors open seamlessly onto the garden. The landscaped garden offers a paved terrace, lawn, raised beds and a seating area beneath mature trees. To the rear, a stunning glass garden room provides a versatile retreat. Upstairs are the two generous double bedrooms, including a bay-fronted room and a rear bedroom with Juliette balcony, plus a bathroom. On the top floor, two further bedrooms share a Jack and Jill ensuite. A superb blend of character and contemporary living.
