Hartington Road, Aldeburgh

A charming detached period home a few paces from the High Street of this historic seaside town of Aldeburgh. Renowned for its connections with the composer Benjamin Britten, its sailing on the Rivers Alde and Ore and its heathland golf course. The High Street features a range of independent shops and brand name boutiques, restaurants and galleries, along with an independent cinema. The town is close to open countryside and nature reserves which are connected through a vast network of public footpaths. Situated within the Suffolk Heritage Coast, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Aldeburgh is approximately two hours drive from London and the nearest train station is seven miles away at Saxmundham which, with a change at Ipswich, connects to London Liverpool Street.

DESCRIPTION

Steeped in history and character, Crespigny Lodge once served as the gate lodge to Crespigny House, a distinguished Grade II Listed residence dating from 1775. Nestled within Aldeburgh's Conservation Area, this enchanting detached home combines period charm with modern comfort — perfectly positioned in a tranquil setting just a short stroll from the High Street and the renowned Suffolk coastline.

The Property

Crespigny Lodge is an attractive 1½-storey detached dwelling, instantly recognisable by its elegant mansard roof clad in Westmorland slates and adorned with five flat-roofed casement dormer windows. The rendered and ashlar-patterned elevations, along with the large multi-pane sash windows, lend the home a timeless appeal while ensuring light-filled interiors.

The Accommodation

A canopied entrance opens to a welcoming lobby, leading to both sitting and dining rooms — two beautifully proportioned reception spaces featuring large sash windows that flood the rooms with natural light.

The dining room adjoins a well-appointed kitchen, fitted with an extensive range of cabinetry, polished stone worktops, and integrated appliances, with an adjacent utility room with WC cloakroom for convenience.

The sitting room forms the heart of the home, centred around a polished stone fireplace, and opening through twin sets of glazed doors into a splendid garden room. This impressive addition features a vaulted ceiling with rooflights and sash windows, creating a seamless connection to the southerly-facing garden beyond — a private haven ideal for relaxation and entertaining.

A staircase rises from the sitting room to the first-floor landing, giving access to three bedrooms, each with dormer windows. The principal bedroom enjoys fitted wardrobes, a walk-in wardrobe, and a spacious en suite with both bath and separate shower. A further shower room completes the accommodation.

Outside

Discreetly set between Champion Road and Hartington Road, Crespigny Lodge enjoys exceptional convenience for Aldeburgh's vibrant High Street and seafront.

A shared driveway with Crespigny House leads to a block-paved drive and detached garage, providing parking, the large garage has electric supply a separate access to the garden. Mature, well-stocked gardens wrap around the property, offering privacy and year-round colour, with the generous rear garden benefitting from a southerly aspect — perfect for alfresco dining and coastal garden living.
