Pont Street, Knightsbridge, SW1X

Tucked away within one of Knightsbridge's most elegant red-brick buildings, this beautifully presented studio apartment offers a rare balance of tranquillity, character and prime central London living.

Positioned on the third-floor half landing, the apartment enjoys a quiet rear aspect with charming views over St Saviour's Church — a surprisingly peaceful outlook in the heart of SW1X.

The space has been thoughtfully arranged to maximise both light and functionality. A well-proportioned studio room combines sleeping and living areas with ease, enhanced by high ceilings that create a greater sense of volume and openness. A separate kitchen is neatly positioned off the main space, while a modern bathroom completes the layout.

This is a home that works equally well as a London base, pied-à-terre or long-term investment — offering simplicity, discretion and immediate usability in one of the capital's most prestigious neighbourhoods.

The Setting

Pont Street sits at the intersection of Knightsbridge and Chelsea — moments from Walton Street, Sloane Street and the world-class retail, dining and cultural offering that defines this part of London. From Harrods and Hyde Park to independent boutiques and cafés, everything is within walking distance — yet the apartment itself remains quietly removed from the energy of the surrounding streets.
